

Reteaching Sheltered English

SECTION 1 • Name the Russian landform region or physical feature identified by each of the following descriptions.

- _____ 1. dominant type of landform in Russia
- _____ 2. plain where most of the Russian people live
- _____ 3. huge river system that drains the Western Siberian Lowland
- _____ 4. longest river in Europe; flows from plains north of Moscow to the Caspian Sea
- _____ 5. low mountain range that divides Europe and Asia
- _____ 6. world's deepest lake; known as the "Jewel of Siberia"
- _____ 7. Siberian region located between the Yenisei and Lena rivers
- _____ 8. mountainous peninsula on the Pacific coast

SECTION 2 • Complete the following lists.

Natural Resources in Which Russia Leads the World

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Location of Russian Oil Fields

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Major Russian Mineral Resources

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____

SECTION 3 • Complete the following table.

RUSSIAN ECONOMIC AND INDUSTRIAL REGIONS
REGION	MAJOR ECONOMIC ACTIVITIES OR PRODUCTS
the Moscow region
the St. Petersburg region
the Volga region
the Urals region
Siberia
the Russian Far East

SECTION 4 • Circle the letter next to the word or phrase that best completes each statement.

1. About 15 percent of Russia's territory is made up of

a. one large state.	c. all ethnic Russians.
b. 21 semi-autonomous republics.	d. lakes.

2. Russia's most populous republic is

a. Bashkortostan.	c. Kalmykia.
b. Tuva.	d. Adygea.

3. All of the following are challenges facing Russia except

a. creating stable political relationships.	c. increasing economic prosperity.
b. holding different regions together.	d. improving a poor educational system.

4. Currently, the population of Russia consists of

a. over 75 percent ethnic Russians.	c. less than 50 percent ethnic Russians.
b. few ethnic Russians.	d. all ethnic Russians.

HRW material copyrighted under notice appearing earlier in this work.